

14. It can be inferred that the purpose of the second paragraph is to

- (a) Urge the two countries to resolve their disputes and work towards a solution.
- (b) Urge the two countries to resolve their border issues with an eye towards the future.
- (c) Urge the two countries to move beyond the border issues and learn from the past.
- (d) Urge the two countries to reach a clear and equivocal solution to their problems.

15. According to the passage, why should India be in favor of an independent Tibet?

- (a) The existence of a Tibetan government-in-exile on Indian soil complicates the relationship with China.
- (b) The presence of Tibetans and their government-in-exile is a reason for China to view India with suspicion.
- (c) An independent Tibet would be ideal as a defense against China.
- (d) India has not given the requisite support to the Tibetans, a population persecuted by the Chinese.

CL

Civil Services
Test Prep