

Q.1) Indian experience shows that promises made in the citizen charter have become more pious declarations with no mechanism to enforce them. In this context, enumerate the challenges in implementation of a successful citizen charter. Also, suggest measures to make it effective.

(10 marks, 150 words)