

Q.1) Why was parliamentary form of government chosen over presidential form by the constitution makers in India? Do you think that the presidentialization of parliamentary form of government in recent times threatens the working of Indian polity? (10 marks, 150 words)