

- Can be classified into khadar and Bangar soil.
- Heavy soil also known as Dabar(Daker)
- Thanesar, Fatehabad, Jagadhari region.

3 ARID BROWN SOIL: -(MEDIUM SOIL)

- Rainfall: 50 –75cm , Ph : 7.5-8.5
- Calcareous in nature
- Texture vary from sandy to silty clay

4. SIEROZEM SOIL: (LIGHT AND VERY LIGHT)

- Rainfall: 30-50 cm
- Impacted by salinity and alkanity
- Light soil also known as Rasoli soil.
- Texture Sandy loam to loamy.

5. DESERT SOIL

- Rainfall less than 30 cm
- pH 8.59
- Impacted by wind erosion

Forests of Haryana

- Indian state forest report,2019
- Recorded forest area: 1559km.sq
- 3.53% of geographical area

❖ Forest Are Classified Into:

❑ RESERVE FOREST 15.97%

- No human activity is allowed

❑ PROTECTED FOREST :-74.28%

- Restricted entry for few activities like grazing collection of forest product

❑ UNCLASSIFIED FOREST :- 9.75 %

- No restrictions

FOREST COVER:-1602.4 kmsq. As per ISFR, 2019

- Very dense: 28 kmsq.
- Moderately dense: 450.9 kmsq.
- Open forest: - 1123.54 kmsq.
- Largest forest area : Panchkula (390.7km)
- Smallest forest area : Palwal - 13.97 km
- Largest area by percentage : Panchkula
- Smallest area by percentage : Fatehabad

FOREST POLICY 2006:- To increase forest and tree cover in state from 6 % to 20%

- Haryana Forest Development Corporation established in December 1989 under Companies Act 1956

❖ FOREST CONSERVATION SCHEME:-

❑ Har Ghar Hariyali Yojana (2015): -

- Promote planting of local varieties of trees like mango jamun

❑ Paudhagiri campaign (2018):-

- Student studying in class 6th to 12th plant a sapling during these three months of monsoon
- In Haryana Tree day is celebrated on 15 July

For QUERIES, GUIDANCE & SUPPORT, CONNECT WITH US!