

D. Nations are not worried about implementation of fundamental rights

- Your Answer :
- Correct Answer : B

◦ Answer Justification :

The passage conveys the message that rights guaranteed in constitution and international covenants are merely ornamental in nature if the government of the day is not serious about implementing them. Hence B.

14 Passage 6

We are living in the age of science and technology. The growth of the scientific knowledge and technology have given new dimensions to our life and influenced each and every field of our living. Science has done a great service to mankind by providing amenities of pleasant living and saved him from many miseries and uncertainties of the primitive past. It has also destroyed many superstitions and religious dogmas, but at the same time it has also uprooted the moral, religious and cultural values of our society. Our traditional religious values and beliefs have been thrown away by this growth of scientific knowledge and out-look. We know much about the atom but not about the values needed for a meaningful and peaceful life. We are living in the state of chaos. Our life is full of excitements, emotional disorders and value conflicts.

Q. Based on your understanding of the passage, which of the following has been an implication of living in the age of Science and Technology?

1. Traditional values and beliefs have taken a backseat
2. It has helped us in solving many of the problems of modern life
3. It has caused conflicts which have led to anxiety and depression

- A. 1 and 2 only.
- B. 1 and 3 only.
- C. 2 and 3 only.
- D. 1, 2 and 3.

- Your Answer :
- Correct Answer : B

◦ Answer Justification :

What the passage is trying to convey is that science and technology has led to a crisis of values and we are not talking about how it has helped solve the problems of modern life. Hence B.