

Table of Contents

Modern Indian history from about the middle of the eighteenth century until the present- significant events, personalities, issues.	8
The Socio-Religious reformers of the 19-20th century aimed at modernization rather than westernization. Do you agree? Discuss. (250 words)	8
The colonial encounter, the birth of the new intelligentsia, the nuanced conversation with the West or its 'Enlightenment' philosophies, and the rigorous process of inner churning led to what is generally regarded as the 'Bengal Renaissance'. Elaborate. (250 words)	10
Account for the journey of working-class movement in India since the advent of modern industries. How did this contrasting group emerge as an organized class in late 1920s? Comment. (250 words)	12
Post-independence consolidation and reorganization within the country.	14
Give an account of India's contribution in Bangladesh Liberation War of 1971 and examine its impact on India -Bangladesh ties from past to present.(250 words)	14
History of the world will include events from 18th century such as industrial revolution, world wars, redrawing of national boundaries, colonization, decolonization.	17
Elaborate upon the events that led to the Suez Canal crisis in 1956. How did it lead to a final blow to Britain's self-image as world power? Discuss the relevance of Suez Canal in the contemporary times. (250 words)	17
Salient features of Indian Society, Diversity of India.....	22
The economic challenges of the 21st century have been a major influence on the life cycles of joint families. Discuss. (250 words)	22
Role of women and women's organization; population and associated issues, poverty and developmental issues,	26
The deep-set prejudices against gender equality are one of the core factors responsible for poor recognition of women rights in the country. Critically examine. (250 words)	26
What constitutes unpaid work? Is it a woman's responsibility or an economic activity? Analyse and explain how it is distributed in our present society. (250 words)	28
LPG subsidy is a critical social investment to free-up women's productive time and reduces public health burden. Do you agree with the statement? analyse. (250 words)	30
Discuss the key areas that India needs to focus to achieve population stabilization of the country. (250 words)	32
COVID-19 pandemic has accelerated class inequalities and poverty in India. Discuss. (250 words)	34
To tackle the water crisis, women's leadership in water management is crucial. Comment. (250 words)	37
"Women's unpaid domestic work contributes to overall well-being at the household and national level, yet it is invisible in the national database and policies" , Discuss. (250 words) ..	40
"There is a need to shift from tokenism and ensure women a central rather than a peripheral role in the police." Discuss. (250 words)	43