Introduction

- The preamble of Indian constitution acts a torchlight introducing us to the vital constitutional principles embodied. Liberty, Equality, Fraternity are the three important principles Constitution aspires to achieve.
- The Preamble reads, Fraternity, assuring the dignity of the individual and the city and integrity of the Nation.
- Fraternity in simpler terms means a sense of brotherhood.

Body

Indian Society's realization of fraternity as a goal:

The fraternity in the Constitution is described in two parts and lets examine its realization in the same way.

1. Integrity of the nation: India though stitched together from 562 princely states and the British provinces has shown how as one nation we are a strong entity.
 1. Democracy at 75: India still continues to be a thriving and successful democracy even after many experts predicted it wouldn't last few years. This shows how as a fraternity Indian people have held this strong.
 2. Cooperative & Competitive Federalism: Though the states compete amongst each other they have always been helping each other. This shows the healthy federal structure for which fraternity is the basis.
 3. United but diverse: Though India is populated with multiple religions it is one of the most peaceful societies. Ex: Celebration of festivals of different religions peacefully.
 4. Acceptance: Accepting refugees like the Tibetans India has shown how much we value & practice the concept of brotherhood.
 5. Programmes: Programmes at the centre such as 'Ek Bharat Shreshtha Bharat' try to promote a sense of brotherhood amongst the citizens of the country.
