

(SOLUTION) Online Prelims TEST - 11 (SUBJECT WISE)

78 Correct Answer : C

Answer Justification :

Both the statements are correct

NABARD found that 52.5% of the agricultural households had an outstanding loan on the date of the survey, and thus were considered indebted.

While all classes of farmers had debt, the highest incidence of indebtedness came from those owning more than two hectares of land. In that category, 60% of households are in debt.

The biggest reason for taking loans among agricultural households was capital expenditure for agricultural purposes, with a quarter of all loans taken for this purpose.
