

❖ These are continued during the Mahajanapada era.

NBPW

❖ The main sites where these were found are; Ahichatra, Hastinapur (both in UP), Navdatoli (Madhya Pradesh)

Monochrome

Bichrome

and around 10% have colours like pink, golden, brown among others.

❖ Monochrome pottery has a fine and thin fabric. Potted on fast wheel and have a strikingly glossy surface. Around 90% of potteries type is; jet black, brownish black and bluish black ❖ Bichrome pottery is found less at that time. It shows all the features of monochrome except that it shows combination of two colours.