

- B. Article 68
- C. Article 66
- D. Article 62

Answer: C

Explanation: Option C is correct

Article 66 deals with the election of the Vice-president of India.

The Vice-President, like the president, is elected not directly by the people but by the method of indirect election. He is elected by the members of an electoral college consisting of the members of both Houses of Parliament.

Thus, this Electoral College is different from the Electoral College for the election of the President in the following two respects:

1. It consists of both elected and nominated members of the Parliament (in the case of president, only elected members).
2. It does not include the members of the state legislative assemblies (in the case of President, the elected members of the state legislative assemblies are included).

Q43. Under which Article the six Fundamental Rights under Article 19 are automatically suspended during National Emergency?

- A. Article 356
- B. Article 357
- C. Article 358
- D. Article 359

Answer: C

Explanation: Articles 358 and 359 describe the effect of a National Emergency on the Fundamental Rights.

Article 358 deals with the suspension of the Fundamental Rights guaranteed by Article 19,

While Article 359 deals with the suspension of other Fundamental Rights (except those guaranteed by Articles 20 and 21).

When a proclamation of national emergency is made, the six Fundamental Rights under Article 19 are automatically suspended, according to Article 358. No separate order for their suspension is required.
