

4. He got posting due to political nexus
5. He is trying to help a politician caught in corruption case
6. Sitting on files
7. Threatening me with false corruption case and dire consequences)

Answer-

1. Responsibilities:

Moral – to stop his dishonest efforts and let the law take its own course with respect to the politician under inquiry. To uphold the transparency and integrity of the administration. To adhere to my moral standards without fear.

Administrative – To complete the task of enquiry without delay and according to what law prescribes. Right message must go to the administration that corruption inside or outside will not be tolerated.

Personal– To protect life and personal liberty of me and my family members from potential threat from the politician-officer nexus. My image also must be protected from false corruption allegation of the officer, to retain trust of general public in administration.

2. Corresponding challenges :

1. Lack of regards the officer has for ethical standards.
2. Administrative constrains as his sitting on the file is not illegal. As the officer is consciously trying to help the politician involved in corruption case, and he too has authorities and privileges by virtue of him being an officer, legally restricting him is difficult.
3. The deputy if colluding with an influential politician increases their potential to do any harm to me or my family members also to my image as upright officer.

3. Course of action:
