

18

The essence of Alauddin Khalji's agrarian reforms was to bring the villages in closer association with the government in the area extending from Dipalpur and Lahore to Kara near Modern Allahabad. In that context, which of the following statement is not correct?

- (a) The region was brought under Iqta system.
- (b) The lands assigned in charitable grants were confiscated and brought under khalisa.
- (c) The land revenue was fixed at half of the produce and assessed on the basis of measurement.
- (d) The section of rural aristocracy were forced to pay the grazing and house taxes like the others.

a

Difficult
Fundamental(F)

Detailed Analysis

Not Attempted

- The essence of Alauddin Khalji's agrarian reforms was to bring the villages in closer association with the government in the area extending from Dipalpur and Lahore to Kara near modern Allahabad. In this region: